

Community feedback sought on hospital redevelopment art and signage

Members of the Molong Multipurpose Service (MPS) redevelopment team recently spoke to community members at a local school and the HealthOne in Bank Street about their ideas for art and signage at the MPS.

Deb Kenna, Health Service Manager at the Molong MPS, is also keen to hear from anyone who couldn't make it to the consultation sessions held recently.

"Stage 1 of the build is nearing completion and will include the new Residential Aged Care section, as well as a new courtyard, which is very exciting, particularly for our residents," Deb said.

"At this point in the project, we're seeking input from the entire Molong community on artwork, signage and other ideas to make the Molong MPS a more welcoming place for all.

"An online survey has been created for everyone to have the opportunity to provide their ideas - it's simple and easy - all you need to do is go online, and fill in answers to six short questions.

"Local input is really valuable and will inform the look and feel of the art within the redeveloped areas as well as signage around the MPS."

Molong MPS Health Service Manager, Deb Kenna, with long-time Molong resident Kevin Webb and the Western NSW Local Health District's Aboriginal Health Manager, Zach Martin-Dennis, outside HealthOne in Molong.

The survey is available at: www.surveymonkey.com/r/3HHQWDX and will be open until 5pm on Friday the 24th of March.

If you require assistance with the online survey please contact the Molong MPS on 6392 3300.

Have your say online

The Molong community is invited to provide ideas and feedback for art and signage involved in the Molong Multipurpose Service (MPS) redevelopment, which will be completed later this year.

Deb Kenna, Health Service Manager at the Molong MPS, is keen to hear from anyone who couldn't make it to consultation sessions held in Molong recently.

"Stage 1 of the build is nearing completion and we're seeking input from the entire Molong community on artwork, signage and other ideas to make the Molong MPS a more welcoming place for all," Deb said.

"An online survey has been created for everyone to provide their ideas - it's simple and easy - all you need to do is go online, and fill in answers to six questions.

"Local input is really valuable and will inform the look and feel of the art within the redeveloped areas as well as signage around the MPS."

The survey is available at: www.surveymonkey.com/r/3HHQWDX and will be open until 5pm on Friday the 24th of March.

If you require assistance with the survey please contact the Molong MPS on 6392 3300.

Main works for the Molong MPS redevelopment began in June 2016. The redevelopment will deliver a range of urgent care, inpatient, residential aged care services and enhanced outpatient and ambulatory care services.

PLANNING POTENTIAL

Urban, Rural & Regional Planners

- Development Applications
- Planning Advice & Feasibility
- Environmental Impact Statements
- Project Management
- Rezoning
- Subdivisions
- Member, Planning Institute of Australia

planningpotential.com.au P.O. Box 2512, Orange 0412 395 668 info@planningpotential.com.au

HOT

GOSS

Seen around town ...

Greg and Di McLean who came back to Molong last weekend to help celebrate Jess Brown's special birthday. We hear the ex-Molong-ites now live up north.

Bob Cooper (Canberra) and his son (visiting from Scandanavia) returned to Molong last weekend to visit Bob's mum and family.

Seen around airport ...

Cheryl and Andrew spotted at the Coolangatta airport by the Express - apparently visiting her family for the 'meet the family' session of Channel 9's Married At First Sight. This unhappy couple have now left the show but might have learnt something about what makes a positive relationship? Maybe a session in Molong with Ted and Gladys Hubbard might prove to be more valuable than the show's psychologists? (See last week's Express).

What about poor Jesse (who can't show his feelings) and the more fragile identical twin, Mel who wants to be loved, held, made feel important. This week's session showed the two struggling to figure out how to love each other. Anyone who misses out on watching this reality TV special on Channel 9 is, well, missing out! Full of drama, intrigue, challenges and dysfunctions. What could be better 'watching time'. Check out next Sunday night to see which couple stays or goes!

Seen by Express Editor at Charlie's Charcoal Chicken in Queen Street Woolhara - none other than Andrew Johns. Nice bloke and ... so incredibly fit. Not an inch of fat or superfluous skin on this young man.

Gifts ... gifts ... gifts - Jodie (Barnsey's Be Tempted) and Helen (2 Fat Ladies) have both been shopping at the Sydney Trade Show - and have brought back to Molong the most gorgeous gifts, flowers, handbags, jewellery, bling, shoes, scarves ... and more!

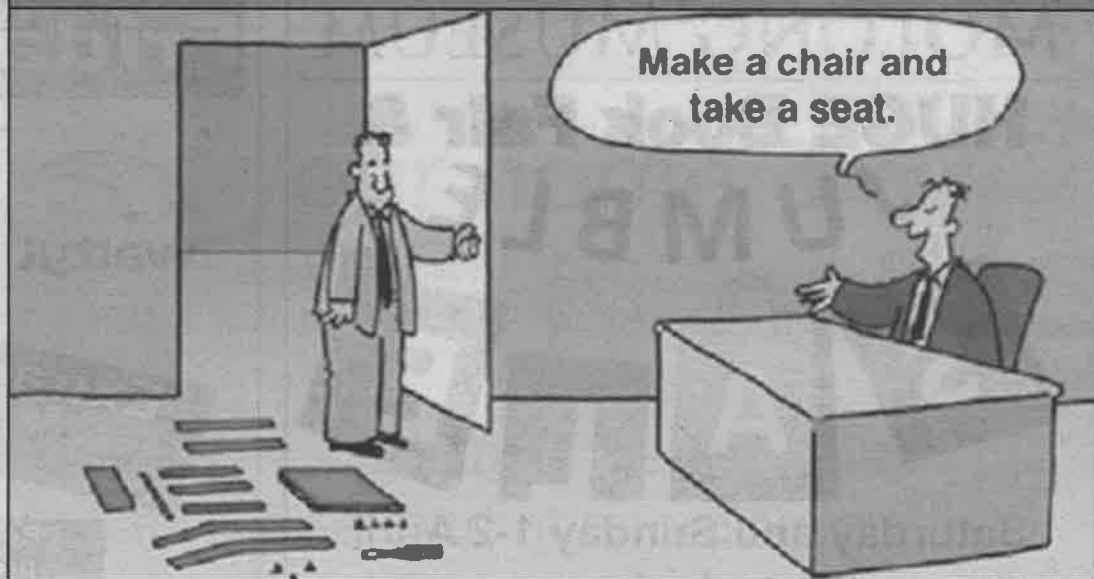

Libby at Jayes - and Tania at Fencing One have all returned with great ideas, stock ... WOW! Can Molong and district shoppers be so lucky.

Don't forget to give your best wishes to Molong's Dave and Kim (Freemasons and First National Real Estate) for their forthcoming marriage. Everyone is tickled pink to see two of Molong's favourite people 'tying the knot'. This couple do heaps in the town to help others - some noticeable - most not noticeable or will ever be noticeable. We all love them and looking forward to seeing heaps of wedding photos.

Lots of things happening -

At the Freemasons (Hotel) building with John and Jason on the job with the renovation program. Les and Cheryl (Telegraph Hotel) are currently in the planning stages for the new look hotel. Libby and Hugh Oldham have their first covers night this Friday night (don't miss out), Barnseys have laid new floor coverings and set up new equipment, Molong Bakery have their business looking very spiffy (and we hear Paula's home-made scones are 'sensational') Sweetness now has the most incredible range of teas (try the Tumeric Mocha). Sarah and Jamie at 17 Shades in Bank Street have spent a busy weekend hammering and painting their premises ... there's lots happening in Molong - and, it's all good!

Applying for a job at IKEA

100 plus

convenience store

at BP Molong

Hill St. - Ph: 6366 8393

Molong Servo Cafe

Quick, Grab & Go Foods

Great Coffee

Spend $50 or more in one transaction at SPAR to receive

8 per litre DISCOUNT on fuel

Cash / card only. No commercial sales. No fuel cards.